RAILWAY VALUATION SUBJECT OF HOT LEGAL ATTACK

Glendale's City Attorney Scores Figures of Commission at P. E. Rate Hearing

Cross-fire of verbal artillery scored heavy points this morning for the cities of Glendale, South Pasadena and Alhambra who were represented at the state railroad commission's hearing on the Pacific Electric passenger fare increases, by their city attorneys.

Chief Engineer Richard Sachse and his report on the valuation of the Pacific Electric right-of-way were literally torn apart while O. A. Smith, traffic manager of the railroad, was thoroughly grilled by Attorney Bert Woodard of Glendale who wrung from him the statement that in Los Angeles a person can ride 16.75 miles for 10 cents, while 23 cents is charged for the 8.3 mile trip to Glendale.

Valuation Under Fire

Tom Gould, Alhambra's legal whip, then turned loose and made Mr. Smith admit that Alhambrans pay even more than Glendale passengers.

The attorneys opened fire on the commission's valuation on which the increase in rates was based and also on the mileage system of rates put into effect by the commission as unjust and discriminatory.

In a hot attack on the mileage plan, Gould drew from Smith that the principal on which the monthly calendar commutation books were issued was that the lowest possible fare given by the company could be granted only to persons who contracted to use their ticket book every day. Gould maintained that this theory, that the person who rides most often, gets the lowest fare, should be applicable to communities as well as individuals.

Free of Charge

The attorneys also charged that rights of way given the Pacific Electric free of charge and sometimes a cash bonus in addition, were listed under the head of "invested capital" in the valuation of the system by the commission, acting on Sachse's report.

At yesterday afternoon's session of

GLENDALE MAKING PLANS TO START AUTO BUS LINE

City Manager W. H. Reeves Gets Facts and Figures; Tells of Court Decision

Glendale is to have a bus line to Los Angeles before long, according to indications at the city hall.

"The city council is determined to show the Pacific Electric that it is not bluffing," declared City Manager W. H. Reeves yesterday afternoon, upon his return from the Pacific Electric rate hearing in Los Angeles at which his testimony was the sensation of the occasion.

Mr. Reeves asserted that the city council expected to furnish relief to the public just as rapidly as possible and that if the city did not decide to operate a bus line itself it might subsidize a privately-operated company.

During the recess between sessions yesterday, Mayor Spencer Robinson, City Manager Reeves and Councilmen S. A. Davis and C. E. Kimlin called upon H. Z. Osborne, engineer for the public utilities commission of Los Angeles. Mr. Osborne was a classmate at Stanford university with Mr. Reeves. He told the Glendale officials that the objection of Los Angeles to such a bus line might depend upon whether or not the bus intended to compete with the Los Angeles street car lines.

No Competition Intended

Mr. Reeves made it plain to him that no competition was intended and that the bus did not wish to pick up local passengers in the city of Los Angeles.

Before the permit can be approved by the city of Los Angeles, a complete description of the bus to be used and its specifications must be recorded. As soon as these can be obtained, according to Mr. Reeves, a committee of public officials will again take the petition to the public utilities commission of Los Angeles and endeavor to obtain its immediate approval.

Shortly after Mr. Reeves' return from Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, a salesman for a bus distributing firm called at the city hall. Mr.

"Let 'em come with their complaints now," he says, "but only one at a time—that's all the guest chairs I have."

The more logical reason for his pride is what he considers the finest motor car in town—a new Lexington Lark, four-passenger capacity, and a canary in color.

"Everything on it anyone can think of," says the skipper.

E. Chase, were repeated last night before the Redondo Beach Women's club and were very well received. The plays were "Poor Old Jim," "Glory of the Morning," and "Mrs. Ritter Appears." As soon as his commission expires as secretary of the National Real Estate association, he intends to move to California, according to report. negotiations today over the settlement of this old controversy. China has been advised by President Harding, by Secretary of State Hughes and by other conference leaders that she is endangering her own interests as well as those of the whole conference by "quibbling" over minor matters of detail. It was pointed out to the Chinese minister at the white house that had it not been for the Washington conference, China would still be without Shantung and with little prospect of regaining it. As a result of the conference he was informed, Japan returns the lost province with but one condition—that a Japanese traffic manager and a Japanese chief accountant be retained on the railway during the life of the loan, which Japan is making to China for the purchase of the railroad. This condition, as viewed by American officials, is of minor importance, as compared with the return of the province, and China was advised to stop quibbling and accept it. The Chinese minister also was advised that the present Washington conference is not the end of such meetings and that if China feels herself aggrieved, or if the conditions of the return do not meet expectations, she is at liberty to reintroduce the subject at future conferences.

$16 WEEKLY WAGE FOR WOMEN IS UNDER DISCUSSION

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Hearings opened today before the state industrial welfare commission on the question of the reduction of the $16 a week minimum wage for women. Labor and welfare interests were present to protest against any reduction of the present minimum, holding that it is impossible for an unmarried woman wage earner to get along decently on less than the present minimum of $16 a week.

MORE THAN MILLION DOLLARS' FIRE LOSS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—More than 100 cars of the Chicago surface street railway line were destroyed by fire which burned car barns at Devon and Clark streets on the north side early today. First estimates of the damage run from $1,500,000 to $3,000,000. Approximately 600 cars were in the barns when the fire was discovered but about 500 of them were run out before the flames reached them. Firemen had a difficult time preventing the flames from spreading to houses adjoining. Early morning street car service on the north side was crippled. The cause of the fire has not been learned.

CHARGES STEAM ROLLER METHODS AT FARMERS' MEET

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Promised fire works in President Harding's national agricultural conference materialized this afternoon. L. H. Francisco, self-styled "dirt farmer" of San Diego, Cal., denied a hearing in open session of the parley, charged "steam roller methods" were being exerted and asserted that any relief the conference may recommend for the farmers of the nation will be "just pure luck." "I am ashamed at the things that are going on here in this conference," Francisco shouted after Chairman Anderson entertained a motion for recess while Francisco was vehemently demanding to be heard.

PROHIBITION AGENTS RAID TWO NOTED BEACH CAFES

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Making good their declaration that a sweeping clean-up will be undertaken in Southern California this week, agents of the state prohibition enforcement squad raided two famous beach cafés early today and arrested twenty persons including some wealthy patrons. The places raided were the Tumble Inn at Ocean Park and Moonlight Gardens, between Culver City and Venice. A parking station located near the Ship Cafe, at Venice, was also entered and eight persons taken and five automobiles confiscated. The Ship Cafe was not raided. It was reported that in all the places visited whisky was seized.

ARBUCKLE DEFENSE WINS IN ANOTHER LEGAL BATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The defense emerged victor in another long legal wrangle today which delayed progress of the second trial of Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle. Judge Louderback declined to rule the testimony of Kate Brennan, chambermaid, who testified for the defense, incompetent because of the fact that she had some time ago been committed to an institution for the insane. He held that her testimony on the stand did not indicate that she was incompetent at the time she testified. The jury retired during the arguments. Mrs. Helen Barrie of Los Angeles, resumed the witness stand following the argument to tell of an occasion when she saw Virginia Rappe tear her clothing in paroxysms of pain.

CONDUCT FINAL FUNERAL RITES FOR POPE BENEDICT

ROME, Jan. 26.—In the great cathedral of St. Peter's dimly lighted by fluttering candles and torches, the final funeral rites were conducted today for the late Pope Benedict XV. The body was buried in a crypt. In response to the living wishes of the late sovereign pontiff of the Catholic church, the mortal remains will find their last resting place as close as possible to the tomb of Peter. Ordinarily nine days are given over to the papal funeral ceremonies, but the pope in his will expressed the wish that his body be not embalmed. This made it necessary to hold the interment sooner than usual. Members of the noble guard—the household troops of the vatican—attired in mediaeval uniforms with halbeards, acted as pallbearers. The funeral was in private, the invitations being restricted to the cardinals, officials of the vatican, members of the diplomatic corps and members of patrician families. Italian troops and special squads of gendarmerie were on guard before the cathedral. The crowds were held in check by cordons of soldiers and police. Throughout the ceremonies the great bell of the cathedral tolled slowly.

Don't Play With Fire
Refuses to Sell Beauty
How Long is a Rope?
Harding's Home Town

By Gil A. Cowan

WONDERFUL what "playing with fire" will do for a person

Everybody knows that a child that jumps over a bonfire is apt to get burned.

And when she grows up he is the same fellow that gets into a dice game and loses $4835 in a night,

Or he may get intoxicated and drive his car out on the highway and do $2200 damage,

Or he may be a "respected citizen" who compromises himself so as to be blackmailed out of $10,000,

Or he may be worth $5000 and try to play the stock market over and above a rational margin, thereby getting "cleaned."

It never pays to play with fire. Some people get away with it, but how far do they get? The next bonfire they try to jump is a little bigger than the one before. So eventually they get burned.

Gertrude Eggett, Fresno girl, who has been declared by experts to be the most physically perfect woman in America, refuses to sell her beauty!

Thousands of dollars for screen and stage appearances have been offered her—and she has refused. Imagine the determination and willpower it takes to fling away fortune.

In a large measure Miss Eggett is justified in her attitude. Vulgarians, who have capitalized both the films and the drama in New York, are of such unsavory reputation that it is little wonder she does not want to sell her beauty.

Yet, under proper conditions, the victory this girl has won should be of material value. Thousands of men and women could profit by her example of right living, were it possible for them to picture Miss Eggett's perficity.

Exposure of a plot to throw Mexico into another revolution seems to stir little interest, but it is enlightening to the thinker who sees the moneyed interests of Wall Street misusing the names of Hughes and Harding in correspondence to conspirators south of the border.

While it is probably proper that revolutions be organized in this country—the Sinn Fein, Hindus, Czecho-Slovaks and several other nationalities will agree to this—there is a limit to the length of rope permitted them.

When plotters in New York City use the name of the president to encourage others south of the Rio Grande, it is time for the secret service to clean out the nest.

A rather amusing dispatch comes from Harding's old home. The village of Iberia, Ohio, has a postoffice today, re-established on orders from the president "in recognition of the place where he attended college."

Citrus Institute Is Part of Orange Show

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 26.—Annual session of the California Citrus Institute will be held in this city in connection with the Twelfth National Orange Show on Tuesday, February 21. The program announced by President J. T. Barrett of the Citrus Experiment station includes papers on subjects of importance to the citrus grower at this time.

The institute date will make it possible for those attending to remain over for the holiday, Washington's birthday following, to further view the displays at the orange show.

The sessions will begin at 9:30 a. m. and 1:45 p. m., and in addition to an address of welcome by Mayor S. W. McNabb, appointment of committees, reports and the election of three directors for full terms, the program will be: "Citrus Fertilization—A Resume of Our Present Knowledge" by W. P. Kelley, Citrus Experiment station, Riverside; "Physical Problems in Soils," H. J. Wilder, county agent, San Bernardino; "Fertilization Experiments at Chaffey Junior College," C. J. Booth, Ontario.

In the afternoon session the addresses will include: "Scaly Bark of Orange Trees," H. S. Fawcett, Citrus Experiment station, Riverside; "Individual Tree Care," M. B. Rounds, Azusa Citrus Fruit company; "Some Important Citrus Fruit Troubles," W. J. Ramsey, field department, California Fruit Growers' exchange.

TO ABOLISH PASSPORTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—President Obregon filed an executive order on January 18 abolishing all passport restrictions against Americans entering Mexico on and after February 1, George P. Summerlin, charge d'affairs of the American embassy at Mexico City, today informed the state department. A similar executive order has been signed by President Harding effective on and after February 1, extending similar privileges to Mexicans entering the United States from Mexico.

According to the Mexican order Americans entering Mexico after February 1 will not be required to hold passports, permits, identity cards or other similar documents.

POWER PROJECTS ON PAPER BUT THAT IS ABOUT ALL

Government Reports on Huge Projects Gather Dust, Is Correspondent's Claim

By J. E. JONES
Special to The Glendale Evening News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Not much has been heard of late about the great superpower projects by which the waterpowers from Northern New England to the River James in Virginia would be tied together in groups of electric distributing units. The survey which was made under the leadership of the Geological Survey reached the state of a formal report, and this report is apparently resting comfortably in the government archives. In the meantime the federal power commission seems to be lacking in "pep" and their rules and the slowness with which they bring their methods of procedure up to date has failed to arouse any enthusiasm.

The interest in developing Muscle Shoals is entirely due to a realization on the part of the people of the south in the great benefits that can be made to accrue to a community or a section of the country through utilizing its waterpower resources. And what the south has found in its awakening is no more than a possibility that exists elsewhere throughout the country. Hydro-electric plants in certain parts of the south have recently demonstrated that they could run a super-power project of their own. They distributed their power from station to station, "tying in," as they call it, so that the system developed by these different power producers was made to serve over a circuit seven hundred miles long.

Somewhat Different

It is just such a scheme as this that is contemplated on a broader scale, in the super-power project from the Androscoggin to the James. While the elaborate survey submitted earlier in the winter by Secretary of the Interior Fall, is apparently in the somnolent stage it is rather amusing to read some backfire obviously put out in the interests of builders of locomotives, in which it is pointed out that "the steam locomotive of today is a quite different motive power from the locomotive of a decade ago." And, so, it may be remarked, the electric locomotive, and the hydro-electric power and distributing plants are also different. The steam locomotives of the country are not only avaricious consumers of the products of great coal mines, but the almost universal use of steam is also responsible for the railroads devoting about half of all their transportation facilities to the hauling of coal.

This tremendous burden that is thrown upon the transportation facilities of the country is one of the things the agricultural interests are complaining of; and they charge it with being largely responsible for the high cost of living and for the agricultural depression. While the government urges water power and hydro-electric development it still maintains restrictive rules that so curb the possibility of reasonable returns to investors, that the forward progress of this phase of national development is apparently lagging. Meanwhile hundreds of thousands of men and unlimited machinery and transportation are in constant operation in order that piles of coal may be distributed here, there and everywhere, so that it can be burned in a definite firebox to heat the pipes in a certain boiler, when everyone knows that the common sense of the thing is to develop central power stations capable of transmitting all this energy over lines of wires—"fire by wire."

Ownership of Homes

More than fifty-one per cent of the homes in Des Moines, Iowa, are owned by the occupants. At the other end of the list is New York city where 12.7 per cent of the homes are occupied by their owners. The parents and grandparents of the adult class of today were usually owners of homes, and a half century ago a man who owned no home of his own was regarded as a poor citizen.

While homes are harder to acquire under the changed conditions of the country, yet, one ought not to be too badly discouraged by the official figures, for who would want to own a home in New York city unless possessed of great wealth?

The apartment house and the tenements make house-keeping simple and the city women will tell you that the system gives them less to do at home and more time for the movies and other delights of city dwellers. Des Moines stands high among home-owners, but the small towns still have people who live in real homes.

Members of House Form Organization to Assist Veterans

By A. O. HAYWARD
Written for International News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—The organization of a "veterans' bloc" has been perfected in the House of Representatives.

The newest "bloc" is composed of members of the House who have had military service and its spokesmen declared today that they proposed to enter actively upon an aggressive and persistent campaign to get what was desired and needed for veterans of the world war.

Leaders of the "veterans' bloc" are Representatives Johnson, South Dakota, and Hamilton Fish, Jr., both Republicans. House leaders look upon these congressmen as extremists in their views toward soldier aid measures, but their leadership of the "bloc" is causing some uneasiness among the "old guard."

Representative Johnson said today that the immediate drive of the "veterans' bloc" was with the purpose of securing bonus legislation, better pay for nurses and hospital attendants and higher retired rank for emergency officers.

Members of the "bloc" expressed disapproval of the announced intention of the ways and means committee to delay action on the bonus bill until the foreign debt funding bill is acted upon by the Senate.

CONFERENCES ARE SOUGHT

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—System federations of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor were ordered to secure conferences with railroad officials "at the earliest possible date," with a view of taking up the question of new working rules promulgated by the United States Railway Labor Board, which affect approximately 500,000 shopcraft employes.

These conferences, according to announcement by the executive boards, in session here, are "for the purpose of inserting into the agreement on each railroad the labor board's rules, where corresponding rules were not agreed upon in conference conducted under decision 119, except as to certain rules wherein we have authorized that other action be taken."

CAN'T OPRATE AT ONCE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Although Japan agreed Saturday to the conference resolution calling upon the powers to place on the table all treaties and secret agreements affecting China, the resolution will never operate in fact during the present conference, it was stated by Japanese delegation spokesmen here.

The resolution will be carried out insofar as making public all treaties and secret commitments between Japan and China and any other power affecting China, the official said, but added that "it can hardly be expected that this will be accomplished in the brief period remaining to this conference."

RATE APPEAL IS DISMISSED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—The Supreme court of the United States has dismissed the appeal brought by the state of North Dakota against the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company to prevent the railroad from collecting increased rates authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The man who has a good opinion of himself is often a poor judge of human nature.

GLENDALE MAKING PLANS TO START AUTO BUS LINE

Reeves, however, has investigated the subject recently and favors patronizing home industry and utilizing a Moreland bus. He has been informed that the city can obtain a $5000 bus in good condition at a 50 per cent reduction. This bus would accommodate twenty-five passengers. It could be operated for less than $27.50 a day. Mr. Reeves is in favor of starting with two buses and increasing the number as rapidly as warranted.

Supreme Court Decision

"The city of Glendale has a perfect right to establish a bus line operating within or without the city limits at its pleasure without consulting the state railway commission," declared Mr. Reeves. "Of course, if it is operated through any municipality or into Los Angeles, a permit must be obtained there."

Mr. Reeves referred to the decision of the supreme court that the railway commission had no jurisdiction over the operating of any municipal utility inside or outside its corporate limits. In this case the railway commission had sought to force the city of Pasadena to file a schedule of rates charged for electric current furnished to the city of South Pasadena. The railroad commission claimed jurisdiction over the city of Pasadena when operating a municipal utility outside of its own borders.

The Men's club feels that it is most fortunate in securing the services of Prof. Malcom because of his large experience. For thirty-five years he has been an agricultural expert and teacher and is glad to pass on to others the benefit of his knowledge.

"Each evening there will be an open forum where those present may ask questions and exchange ideas."

The tribunal to be recommended by the committee will be modeled after the Kansas court of industrial relations.

MUCH GRAIN SENT RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Twelve ships, carrying a total of 3,000,000 bushels of grain, have actually been sent to Russia for the relief of her starving populace, it was announced today by Secretary of Commerce Hoover, director of the relief work.

Eighteen other vessels are now loading at Atlantic and Gulf ports, and will carry another 3,000,000 bushels as fast as they can be filled and cleared. The relief commission has spent about $12,000,000 of its original appropriation of $30,000,000 by Congress.

RAILWAY VALUATION SUBJECT OF HOT LEGAL ATTACK

the hearing. Secretary James M. Rhoades of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce augmented City Manager W. H. Reeves' vitriolic statements regarding the service. He read the resolution adopted by the board of directors Tuesday which demanded a revision of the "excessive and unfair" rates and calling for a "change in membership of the commission and in the administration of its affairs" unless proper relief was granted.

Facilities provided for Glendale traffic are "outrageous," the irate secretary told the commission. "The right of way looks like a pasture," he added, in refuting the statement that the tracks were paved throughout the city.

"Blush with Shame"

"The Pacific Electric should blush with shame to take the people's money for such terrible service," he concluded, after asking that the tracks on Brand boulevard be brought down to grade and paved. J. M. Ray added to this request while Alex Mitchell, receiver for the Land Office, said he had lived in north Glendale for eighteen years, and he had no praise for the local car service in comparison with the San Francisco municipally operated lines.

In another column will be found City Manager W. H. Reeves' plan for a municipally operated bus line. The hearing today is closing with arguments by the attorneys and the "fireworks" are over for a few days—until the commission hands down an amended decision, or none at all.

Rate Hearing Provides Some Hearty Laughs

The Pacific Electric rate hearing yesterday was attended by Dr. Jessie Russell, chairman of the public utilities committee of the Los Angeles Women's club.

Dr. Russell declared afterwards that the proceedings were much more amusing than a vaudeville performance. She said she got a good laugh when, upon being asked how long she had been a "patron" of the Pacific Electric, one woman replied that she had been a "patient" of the railroad for the past eight years.

Dr. Russell and her son, Hal J. Russell, are now spending a few days in Venice before moving from 642 North Maryland avenue into her new temporary home at 1124 Viola avenue. She expects to have a permanent home built in Glendale in a few months.

Mrs. Minnie Hester Is Hostess to Club

The members of the Wednesday Club were entertained at luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Hester, 203 East Maple avenue. Decorations of narcissus were used throughout the house. After a delicious luncheon the afternoon was spent in needlework. Those present included Mrs. J. H. Hearnshaw, Mrs. G. D. Roach, Mrs. H. L. Clotworthy, Mrs. J. Perkins, Mrs. W. F. Nash, Mrs. A. F. Muhleman, Mrs. William Gibson, Mrs. Charles Glover, Mrs. H. A. Reed of Long Beach, Mrs. Charles Freshman of Los Angeles, Miss Clara Ringert and the hostess, Mrs. Hester.

A. G. Sterling Will Supervise Hotel Work

A. G. Sterling, the engineer in charge of construction of the three million dollar Burmah apartments in Detroit, has been retained by the Fred B. Davis company of Los Angeles to supervise the work on the new Glendale Hotel at the corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue, according to an announcement made this morning by representatives of the company.

A tower will be erected at once, it is said, to handle the materials to be elevated six stories.

MRS. E. READ IS HOSTESS

The members of Chapter L, P. E. O., were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Read, 360 West Broadway.

BRIGHT FUTURE FOR REALTY PREDICTED BY AUTHORITIES

Secretary of National Body and President of State's Association Visit Here

licity, L. A. Hart, W. F. MacPherson and O. E. Van Oven.

According to Mr. Tatum, sixty-four realty boards are now organized in California and members of the state association while many of them are members of the national association. Although the state board has been in existence for the past seventeen years Mr. Tatum asserted that it had not got going well before the last couple of years.

"The organizations of United States and Canada are getting organized to a point where we will be respected and can get legislation which will be for the upbuilding of our business," remarked Mr. Tatum. "We are now organized for our own business—something that has never been done before."

Suggests Two Reforms

Two legislative reforms were suggested by Mr. Tatum: One to enable a real estate dealer to collect under a verbal contract; the other, to prevent anyone, who got the notion, coming to California and entering the real estate business. Mr. Tatum said that it was highly desirable that real estate dealers should be able to collect for their services just the same as lawyers or physicians. He called attention to the evil of individuals taking out a real estate license just as soon as they heard of a prospective buyer and depriving an established dealer, who is under heavy expenses for office rent, automobile upkeep and overhead costs, of the sale.

A "big caravan" will be run through southern California the last of May and the first of June in connection with the National Real Estate convention in San Francisco according to Mr. Tatum, who declared that it would give this part of the state wonderful advertising.

Looks Like Big Year

"It looks to me as though we have a wonderful, rosy future for the real estate business if we get together," remarked Mr. Tatum. "It looks like a banner year for California real estate."

Mr. Tatum appealed to members of the Glendale Realty board not to sit back and let the other fellow show all the initiative, but to take an active interest in the affairs of the state and national associations and to invest $10 a year in the California State Real Estate association.

As president of the Glendale Realty board, C. D. Thom of the Glendale Realty company, 131 South Brand boulevard, presided at the session. He declared Mr. Tatum's remarks had made a big impression upon him. He suggested that some of the members of the local board seemed to have a vague idea as to the benefits which could be derived through proper functioning of the organization.

"We must all work together to make this a real estate board and a credit to the state and national association," declared Mr. Thom.

National Advertising

As secretary of the local board, E. P. Hayward called attention to the recent action of the board of governors in endorsing a special issue of the Arrowhead Magazine to Glendale. He said that the distribution of 35,000 of these magazines by the Union Pacific upon its trains, and through its stations and to those upon its mailing list would give Glendale more national advertising than we have ever had before.

Upon the plea that the publicity would be a distinct benefit to all interests in Glendale, Mr. Hayward suggested $10 from each of 100 merchants to defray Glendale's share of the expense involved. It was explained that this sum entitled the merchant to distribute forty copies of the March number of the Arrowhead to his friends and prospective settlers in Glendale.

Contributions Made

Yesterday $10 apiece had been contributed by each of the following: A. T. Cowan, W. G. Boyd, E. B. Sutton, Fisher's Variety Store, Fanset Dye Works, Wallace Flear, Roy L. Kent Co., J. A. Newton Electric Co., Glendale Theatre, Doner-Hemenway & Burn, Endicott & Larson, Hayward & McCartney, Glendale Realty Co., H. L. Miller Co. and George T. Delong.

Five dollars apiece was given by the following: J. T. Allen, Downing & Cox, Roberts & Echols, Roy E. Parsons, H. J. Vandenhoff, Edith May Osborne, E. M. Cutting, S. Berman, Kroehle Realty Co. and J. J. Schuler.

CONFESSES MAIL THEFT

ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 26.—Confession has cleared up the mystery surrounding the theft of a pouch of registered mail from the New York Central depot here, according to Chief of Police C. F. Northamp. Dan Ingram, colored porter at the station confessed, according to Chief Northamp, that he stole the pouch. Ingram, according to the chief, named George Scruggs, white, a switchman on the road, as the "master mind" in the plot.

INDICT FORMER GOVERNOR

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 26.—Former Governor Elliott W. Major and seven other officers and directors of the closed Night and Day bank, now in the hands of the state department of finance, were indicted on charges of receiving deposits after they knew the institution was insolvent. The offense is a felony under the Missouri statutes.

Credit Association Is Seeking New Members

Arthur H. Dibbern, jeweler, is devoting several hours' time today to having his committee of the Glendale Merchants' Credit Association out after members. Bad checks, slow accounts and other reasons are forcing the business men into the organization.

Pierson Hanning, barber, who does not do a credit business, has made application for membership, saying that he is willing to do his share in co-operating with other business men in keeping Glendale dollars at home.

FIRE CAUSES BIG LOSS

BAY POINT, Calif., Jan. 26.—Damage estimated at $100,000 was caused by a fire which reduced to ashes the entire business district of this town. William J. Simpson, his wife, and four children narrowly escaped death in fleeing from their home which was in the path of the fire. One fireman was hurt. The C. A. Smith lumber yards, housing millions of feet of lumber were endangered. Martinez and Concord fire departments aided in the fight.

PROPOSES TO TAX GIFTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—A tax on large gifts, to be paid by the recipient within ninety days after the gift is received, is proposed in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Frear, republican, of Wisconsin. The tax bill will be graduated from 1 per cent on gifts ranging in value from $1000 to $3000 up to 25 per cent gifts valued at more than $10,000,000. Frear's tax plan is designed to reach tax dodgers who escape the state tax by making gifts.

SEEK PRISONERS' RELEASE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—A committee representing the American Civil Liberties union, which is conducting a nation-wide campaign for the release of so-called political prisoners, has made a protest to Attorney General Daugherty against the administration's attitude toward these offenders as revealed in his memorandum on the case of Eugene V. Debs, recently liberated socialist leader.

It may be one's privilege to point out his friend's faults to him, but if one loves him he hardly ever will.

'Vest Pocket' Road on Verge of Ruin; Need of Cash Great

SMETHPORT, Pa.—The "Kushequa Route" railroad is badly in need of $2,250, and unless it gets it pretty soon this midget line is liable to close up shop. At least that is what President Elisha K. Kane says.

This little railroad, which few previously ever knew existed, became famous last summer through a dispatch of the International News Service, when President Kane issued his celebrated time table announcing that it would operate on only "moist Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays" during summer months, when engine sparks might cause serious forest fires along the mountainsides.

The "Kushequa Route" is a queer little railroad, a score or more miles long. Smethport, nine miles back from nowhere, in the wilds of McKean county, is the county seat. The "Kushequa Route" is the only means of communication with the outside world. At Backus, a little flag stop, it connects with the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad.

During sessions of county court the little railroad is indispensable in getting to and from court.

For several years the road has been losing money. Kane, who is wealthy, kept it going, but he does not feel like "shelling out" perpetually for the other fellow's benefit so he has appealed to the Conopus club of this town—sort of a Chamber of Commerce—to dig up $2,250, if the road is to be kept in operation.

Kane is perfectly frank about it. He says: "The members of the Conopus club are doubtless aware of the shortcomings of the 'Kushequa Route' in its attempts to perform a public service. Several times, for a period of a month or more, the gross earnings from its passenger service have been insufficient to pay for the coal consumed in the passenger runs."

So Kane has doped it out that a locomotive is too expensive to operate in the hills. As a substitute he wants to buy what he calls a motor-bus car. This will be a combination baggage and day coach. It will carry seventeen passengers, if there are no big, fat ones, and they squeeze in good and tight. It will also carry light hand baggage. Then again, this motor-bus can be operated by one man. In other words, Kane hopes to keep the "Kushequa Route" in business even if it does become a one-man railroad. Still another advantage, he says, is the fact that whereas his locomotive hauls two trains a day each way, the motor-bus can make four trips a day.

That's putting Henry Ford's railroading into practical use—cutting down the operating force and doubling up the size of the service.

Again, President Kane is quite entertainingly frank. In his appeal to the Conopus club he says: We have tried in vain to secure one of these cars on the installment plan, without down payment. The nearest we can come to it is one-fourth down and the balance in twenty-four monthly installments. Even the most rudimentary figuring will show anyone that, even with the present small amount of passenger travel, the railway motor-bus could save the amount of the deferred payments."

Kane is practical. Some say he's a millionaire. At any rate, if you look him up in Dun or Bradstreet's, you will find he has a healthy rating.

W. J. BRYAN GIVES OPINION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—William Jennings Bryan announced here that he thought it would be a "grave mistake" for the Senate to ratify the four-powered Pacific treaty unless a reservation were adopted by which the United States and the other nations signatory to it would each reserve the right of independent action. Bryan's announcement was made when he appeared in the reception room of the Senate and conversed there with Republican and Democratic senators.

DECISION NOT REACHED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—The administration today is far from a decision on acceptance of the invitation to the Goena conference as it was when the invitation was first extended, it was stated by a cabinet officer. It will be at least several weeks before the government is ready to announce its attitude toward the Goena meeting, it was stated.

EDISON COMPANY TO SPEND BIG SUMS IN SOUTHLAND

More Than $3,000,000 Per Month to Be Put Out Upon Operating, Improvements

Southern California Edison company employes at 1951 Gardena avenue today are much interested in the announcement that their company is planning to spend about $100,000 a day for the current year.

In addition to its budget appropriation of $22,500,000 for plant additions, the company will disburse $17,500,000 for operating expenses, wages, materials and supplies, interest and dividends. This will bring its total expenditures to $40,000,000 or more than $3,000,000 a month.

This great expenditure during 1922, according to John B. Miller, president of the company, is the result of the continued rapid growth of southern and central California which brings with it an increased demand for electric energy.

Steady Increase

"Not only must additional generating plants and transmission lines be provided to take care of an increase in the electrical load," declares Mr. Miller, "but there also must be constructed additions to the electric distribution system and new substations to deliver the electrical energy to the consumers' meters. Included in the budget appropriation is an item of $8,000,000 to cover these requirements.

"On the basis of current growth 50,000 new consumers will be supplied with energy this year and twelve new substations will be constructed. Over 20,000 poles will be used to support the distribution lines and approximately 2,000 miles of wire will be put up.

Indicates Prosperity

"Growth in the development of electric power is a very good index to general community expansion and prosperity. Based on ratios existing between the electric business and other lines of activity in southern and central California the expenditure of $22,500,000 in water power development and distribution of electric energy will make possible approximately $300,000,000 increase in community wealth.

"Funds for the new work will be secured by the sale of the company's bonds through banking houses and by sales to the company's consumers and the sale of the company's stock. More than 27,000 individuals are now Edison stockholders."

Free Lecture, Concert to Be Given Tonight

Whether the State Medical board should continue to exercise authority over, or are capable to examine chiropractors, will be the subject of two very interesting talks at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium tonight. Dr. E. C. Fortin, chiropractor of Los Angeles, formerly a physician and surgeon of Colorado, will give an educational talk on the science of chiropractic. Being educated in both professions he should be qualified to draw proper comparisons as to the merits of both.

Louis G. Guernsey, prominent attorney of Los Angeles, who has been defending chiropractors, will give some "insight into the methods used by the political powers and the medical board in an effort to crush out this great science," he says. In addition to these talks there will be an hour's entertainment in song by the "Four Embers," a quartet of national reputation. Admission is free.

Johnny Myers Wins in Bout at Arcadia

Johnny Myers, the Glendale fire department battler, again successfully defended his reputation as a boxer at the Arcadia Balloon school gymnasium last night when he won the fistic argument with Carl Mackey of Pasadena. This is the second Crown City boxer who has been bested by Myers.

Ralph Myers, a younger brother, had a hard time holding his own with Battling Frankie from Los Angeles, the latter getting a decision by a small margin. Sixty fans from Glendale cheered the local boys and it was announced taht hereafter the balloon school will furnish motor trucks for transportation of the fight fans from here.

The boxing matches are held every other Wednesday night.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

Eddie Roush Proves He's Rather Expensive

EDDIE ROUSH,

It will cost the Cincinnati National League club $54,000, spread over a period of three years, to bring Eddie Roush, stellar outfielder, back into baseball. Rouse made this statement on his way to his home at Oakland City, Ind., from a hunting trip.

Up San Mateo, California way, where they play a good brand of polo, El Cerrito field, on those days when the teams are in action, now is thrown wide open to the public and a big "Welcome" sign has been draped over the gates leading to the grounds. Time was when a more exclusive policy was in operation, and few except the members and their friends went beyond the portals.

All of which is merely preliminary to the statement that the polo clubs of California have joined in with those of the East in the matter of attempting to popularize the game of polo so that the public will become acquainted with its beauties and take an interest in it.

The policy of democratization which has gone into effect at El Cerrito also has been inaugurated at other Pacific coast polo centers including Coronado, Burlinghame, Santa Barbara, Del Monte and the northwest. In a number of instancees the clubs have gone further than merely open their fields to the public. They have erected bleachers for the spectators and made arrangements for the nearby parking of machines. The invitation is being extended through the columns of the press.

The experiment will be watched with interest. It yet is too early to determine the warmth or coldness with which the invitation has been received, but, at the preliminary matches which have been played thus far this season, there were not a few who availed of the opportunity of being introduced to the game.

it is not to be expected that there will be a grand rush of people. It will take several years before there is anything like a general interest in the game for the public has too long been unfamiliar with the sport and it is going to take some time to get them into line.

When a football game will draw a crowd of from fifty to eighty thousand persons, there is no reason why an international polo match should not draw the same kind of a crowd instead of the relatively small ten thousand which has been the figure up to date. All the elements of football are contained in polo with the accentuation on speed and the element of danger furnished by the galloping and racing ponies. There can be no question that it is exactly the kind of a game—full of rapid action—which is so dear to the heart of the American sporting public.

The exclusion of the public in the past is a mistake which now seems to be recognized and a recification is on foot. Another element which should go a long way toward bringing the game into popularity is the fact that army teams from various posts in the United States are now playing, there being a number of excellent stables dotted here and there. In the army teams the public find an organization which, as a part of Uncle Sam's establishment, belongs to them. They may not be members of an exclusive polo club, but when an army team is on the field, they look on it as their representative, and it always will be found that the "bleachers" are behind the team which wears the colors of the army.

On telegraphic request from President William Proutt of the A. A. U. William F. Humphrey, president of the San Francisco Olympic club, has taken a hand in the dispute between the northern California swimmers and the district branch of the A. A. U. The breach has become a serious one and President Proutt, realizing the trend of affairs has asked Humphrey to investigate.

The swimmers believe they are justified in their action in forming a body composed entirely of swimmers and swimming experts to promote their sport. The A. A. U. district branch on the other hand contends such an organization is not necessary. The contending parties have drifted farther and farther apart and today each faces the other with a chip on the shoulder. Humphrey will interview both sides of the argument and is the only man in the west who has the confidence of both parties who can straighten the matter out.

F. D. Bowman, president of the new Western Swimming association says, "We are not antagonistic to the A. A. U. as the local district officials believe. We honestly think that the district officials have been derelict in their duties to the swimmers and we believe the time has come when swimming followers should fight for their rights and justice. That is all we are doing and are not "bucking" the A. A. U. The district branch fails in its first fundamental duty to the swimmers. Not one member of the Board is a swimming expert, nor are any of the members interested in aquatics as they are in track work. We believe swimming should be placed in the hands of a man or men who know their subject. This to date the local branch has failed to do for us. Swimming has deteriorated in California in the last three years. We want to promote swimming competition for the novices, the medium swimmers and small boys. This the A. A. U. branch does not do nor will not attempt. They cater to the stars and not more than twenty men compete in the same races each season. We will discuss the matter with Mr. Humphrey and I am sure he will see the justice of our claims and contentions."

Plans for the trapshooting for 1922 are now practically all arranged by the American trapshooting association. The "zone" tournaments, which, outside of the Grand American handicap are the most important events of the calendar have been settled on. The shooting in these zone competitions will be held as follows. Eastern zone at Montreal, Canada; Great Lakes, at Indianapolis, Ind.; Southern at Memphis, Tenn.; Prairie at Coffeyville, Kans. and the Pacific coast at Portland Ore. The Grand American Handicap this year has been awarded to Atlantic City.

Rumor has it that the St. Louis Cardinals are trying to get pitcher Tom Hughes from the Los Angeles, Pacific coast league team. Hughes is a veteran of many years, but the word has gone round that the recommendations of Rogers Honnsby on the "vet" to Branch Rickey has started the Cardinals after him. Charley Lockhart, business manager of the Los Angeles club says he is willing to part with Hughes if players of ability are offered in exchange.

Jack Dempsey May Box Carpentier Again, So Kearns Declares

By SID MERCER
Written for International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A return match with Georges Carpentier in England next summer now looms up as the next important ring engagement for Champion Jack Dempsey.

Unless a more worthy American opponent than has yet appeared can be found to match with the champion at Madison Square Garden in the early spring, Dempsey will betake himself to Britain for an extended theatrical tour ending in another battle with the European champion in London.

This is the news brought in by Jack Kearns, who has arrived in New York from Los Angeles where Dempsey is now resting after a strenuous tour of the west, during which he boxed daily.

"The champion is in splendid condition," asserted his manager. "He wouldn't require more than two weeks' training to bump off any heavyweight brave enough to get in the ring with him."

Kearns intends to keep Dempsey busy until mid-summer. The bookings will depend on whether Jack makes his next fight here or abroad.

"We have an offer to show Dempsey on the big time in the east," said Kearns, "and also have several moving picture stunts. One thing is certain, Jack will not get fat or stale through loafing. He isn't like other champions I have known. His principal business is fighting and he stands ready to meet any rival who is good enough to attract a gate which will repay Jack what time he will lose in training. However, I hardly think he can get as much for any bout in this country as he can for meeting Carpentier again in England."

"So far," continued Kearns, "the negotiations have been carried on by cable, but letters are on the way, and next week I am to meet a local representative of the men who are making the English offer. So it looks to me as if we will set sail for England in the spring."

BLAMES BOARD, BANKERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Partial responsibility for the present hectic and depressed condition of agriculture in the United States was laid at the door of the federal reserve board and bankers by Wesley Mitchell, New York economist, addressing the National Agricultural conference.

Wild post-war speculation in securities, commodities, and in farm lands, is brought back to the farmer of the nation as a "foolish piece of exuberance," Mitchell declared.

RISK LIVES ON REPAIRS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The break in the commercial Pacific cable near Midway Island has been repaired by the cable company's staff living on Midway Island, a dot on the Pacific thousands of miles from either San Francisco or Japanese ports. These men, under the leadership of William Pimley superintendent of the cable company's intsallation at Midway Island went out six miles in small boats and by the most difficult hand labor raised the cable and put in a temporary splice. This action saved a delay of some three or four weeks in the repair of the cable, which ordinarily would have necessitated waiting until a cable ship from Seattle could arrive at Midway Island.

MEMORY CONTEST LISTS COMPLETED

Mrs. Dora Gibson Says Young Folk Are Taking Much Interest in Project

Mrs. Dora Gibson, supervisor of music at Glendale Union High school and who is director in charge of the music memory contest to be staged in Glendale, states that lists of the pieces to be used in this contest can be secured at the music rooms of the high school. In preparation for this contest Mrs. Gibson is endeavoring to explain to the pupils at the high school "How to Listen to a Piece of Music" and "How to Understand the Theme on Which the Piece of Music Is Built."

Mrs. Gibson states that the young people are very much interested in the contest and anxious to get started. It is hoped that the contest will begin next week, but in order to do so ten complete sets of records will be necessary to place among the various schools. Mrs. E. B. Moore, who has charge of the drive for donations of these records, states that the request is being well met, but that there is still quite a number of records needed.

Campaign to Save Flapper; Give Her Air, Suggests Girls

By MILDRED MORRIS,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A campaign to save the flapper is on.

Give her air, say the national executives of the Campfire Girls, who are in conference here today.

But let the air be fresh air, these advocates advocated, asserting that young girls who inhale the uncontaminated ozone are less likely to flap into the flames of folly. These executives said the flapper, when "fresh aired" would give up jazz, bobbed hair and unwholesome habits.

"All that is needed to change a flapper into a sweet wholesome American girl is to interest her outdoors and provide recreation and work that will give here the stimulation she now gets from jazzing and lurid movies," said Lester F. Scott, of New York.

"Girls wouldn't get homesick for Broadway if their interest were aroused in outdoor pleasures," said Miss Edith Tubbs of Stockton, Cal.

"Girls who have plenty of outdoor sports and other wholesome fun to amuse them don't care for jazz dances, they don't bob their hair and they don't want to spoon."

Miss Grace Brown of Detroit, declared "girls should never be told not to bob their hair or not to do this or that."

"They should have no inhibitions," she said. "Normal healthy girls don't and they don't care for a jazzing life," said Miss Brown.

All the members of the conference said that the flapper is not to blame. And they all declared that nothing was wrong with the modern girl except her parents.

John Barrymore Star in 'The Lotus Eeater'

"The Lotus Eater," starring John Barrymore and directed by Marshall Neilan, will be shown for the last times today at the T. D. & L. theatre where it has been presented for the past two days to hundreds of Glendale's citizens and patrons of the popular theatre.

As a production of exceptional interest and story of rare excellence "The Lotus Eater" has proven a distinctive film attraction.

Tomorrow and Saturday the T. D. & L. theatre will offer the regular week-end vaudevilie program with the feature film "Pilgrims of the Night" as a double bill.

PROSPERITY IS INDICATED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Railroads of the country are now placing large orders for new equipment, which is one of the truest indications of returning business prosperity, Secretary of Commerce Hoover said today.

Christopher Columbus Discovered America! This Man Admits it

Harry St. Clair, 1250 South Maryland, sends the following, under the caption "Some Reminiscences," to this newspaper:

Editor The Evening News—Judging from the great number of records being dug up, and reported, in newspapers and magazines, it seems that it would not be a misnoner to call this "The Reminiscent Age."

One of the principal objects seems to be to antedate and break the claim of those whose names and records shall stand while this nation lasts, and the years passing but intensify the honor given their names.

Brisbane speaks of the efforts being made by some to find data regarding a Greek inventor, who had made and used a steam engine centuries before Watt made one.

Another hunter claims that he has found the discoverer of America and that it was discovered during the 1400's, but we have one that beats that.

It is said that in the archives of England there are maps and records of the coast of this country from Maine to the Capes of North Carolina made by one Henry St. Clair, who in 1382 sailed from Iceland in the ship called "The Viking," touched on the coast of labrador and from there on south. The maps and charts show the coast of this country as mentioned above.

Doubtless many of those who visited the "World's Fair" at Chicago in 1893 will remember the little sail boat that was anchored beside the battleship Illinois on the lake front.

That little boat was supposed to be an exact facsimile of the Viking in which Henry St. Clair, with nineteen picked men, made the discovery mentioned above and the boat at Chicago, in charge of Captain Anderson, with nineteen men, made the voyage across the Atlantic, in celebration of St. Clair's discovery, and that he might attend the reunion of the St. Clair's and Sinclair's of this country, which was held in Chicago during the "World's Fair," at which reunion there were more than 5000 of the clan, and Captain Anderson and his men were among the honored guests.

But Christopher Columbus, is the man that made the discovery that gave this great country to the world, and why keep butting in at this late date? All the forces of the world could not change it now. He made records that will stand.

HARRY ST. CLAIR,
1250 S. Maryland.

'Rip Van Winkle' Is Featured at Glendale

"Rip Van Winkle," which began a three day engagement at the Glendale theatre yesterday is as fine a production as this reviewer has ever seen. In it is embodied everything that makes for screen entertainment of the very highest order and we cannot too enthusiastically recommend it to anyone in search of a delightful afternoon or evening.

Glendale and Pasadena Rotarians are the guests tonight of Wm. A. Howe, the manager.

Mention must be made first of all of the remarkable work done by Thomas Jefferson in the title role. His protrayal of "Rip" is as perfect a bit of character acting as either stage or screen has known in a very long time. It has been compared with Frank Bacon's playing of "Lightnin' Bill Jones" but Mr. Jefferson's artistry is infinitely greater than Mr. Bacon's.

His supporting cast leaves nothing to be desired nor can a single flaw be found in the rarely beautiful exterior and interior settings which delight the eye in one long succession of perfect pictures.

Automobile Industry Gets Thorough Test; Survival of Fittest

This financial comment is reprinted at the request of E. B. Sutton from the Los Angeles Examiner January 21—was written by B. C. Forbes, who is one of the best known financial writers in America.

"The automobile industry is passing through a period which ends in survival of the fittest and the demise of scores of weak concerns. The mortality among small motor truck makers has already been extremely severe. Something like one hundred have already gone out of existence. The passenger car industry is likely to undergo a similar experience. The prospect is that the automobile industry will have a history similar to the steel industry.

"Concerns like General Motors, Studebaker, Dodge, Reo, Nash, Ford and others strongly intrenched, are likely to get a firmer and firmer hold.

"This week I have been hearing very encouraging things about the Nash company. During last year, a testing time, it advanced from seventeenth to seventh place in the industry, earned more than $35 on each share of its stock, and finished the year with more than $13,000,000 cash on hand. C. W. Nash, its head, was the man who brought General Motors to the front years ago. In the automobile industry, even more than in most lines, personality counts."

WARNS OF COAL STRIKE-

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Railroads and public utilities throughout the country have been advised by government officials to stock up to capacity with coal before April 1, in the face of the bituminous strike, which appears inevitable at this time, it was announced today.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Advertisement.

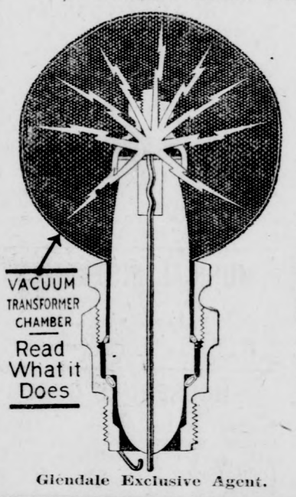
PREVENTS CARBON



—You have more or less carbon trouble from the fuel you are using these days. A great deal of your carbon trouble is due to improper firing of your mixture. The ordinary faint, slow spark explodes only a part of your mixture, leaving unfired a portion which accumulates as carbon.

—But, with the Lynamite spark, it is vastly different. The Vacuum Transformer Chamber protects you against carbon by developing such a strong, big, quick-firing spark that ALL of your mixture is instantly exploded. The Lynamite spark is so powerful that it will fire right through soot and oil. Keep your carburetor in good order, use Lynamite Plugs, and your carbon troubles are ended, even tho you have to use a poor grade of fuel.
